

Ebenezer

“Till now the LORD has helped us.”

Our first four year term has now drawn to a close. On July 28, with joy and fatigue and a rare sense of satisfaction, we return home for our first “home assignment”.

Our time here has spectacularly proven what a liability we are and the Lord's determination and ability to use His people to be a blessing. We are deeply grateful for His untiring patience and extravagant enabling grace.

If there is anything we have learned during this season it is that "salvation belongs to our God and to the Lamb." In the face of the enormity of the task to which the church is called, we are also called to embrace our own "smallness." Our weakness is no impediment to fruitfulness. We simply need to be confident in the Father's determination to give to His Son all that was pledged as the reward of His suffering. "Jesus who died will be satisfied ..."

We are so grateful for all of you. Your steadfast friendship and prayerful support has been such a blessing to our family and to the saints here. They all send their greetings and thanks to you.

We look forward to seeing and sharing with all of you what the Lord has done and what changes and challenges are ahead as we return to Uganda.

We will be living in Ridgeland, MS during our time in the States. As we have more contact details we will pass them on to you.
