ORDER OF WORSHIP

Pastor Elbert McGowan, Jr.—February 15, 2026
“When Trials End in Failure and the Father Who Finds Us”
——James 1:12-18

Welcome & Announcements

Pastor Elbert McGowan, Jr.

* Call to Worship

1 John 1:5-2:2

Mr. Josh Anderson

Intern

This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

Prayer of Invocation and Confession of Sin

Mr. Josh Anderson

Assurance of Pardon

Ephesians 2:4-5

Mr. Josh Anderson

But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—

* Song of Preparation

“I Love to Praise Him”

Chorus: I love to praise Him (I love to praise His name!).

I love to praise Him (I love to praise His name!).

I love to praise Him (I love to praise His name).

I love to praise (I love to praise) His holy name! Repeat

He's my rock (He's my rock, my rock, my sword, and shield),

He's my wheel (He's my wheel) in the middle of the wheel.

I know He'll never (I know He'll never, never let me down),

He's just a jewel (He's just a jewel)

that I have found!

Oh hallelujah (hallelujah), Hallelujah (hallelujah)! I love to praise His name! Repeat

I love to praise His holy name!

God of Abraham,
You're the God of covenant,
and of faithful promises
Time and time again,
You have proven You'll do just what You said.

Pre Chorus: Though the storms may come and the winds may blow
I'll remain steadfast.
And let my heart learn, when You speak a word
it will come to pass.

Chorus: Great is Your faithfulness to me,
great is Your faithfulness to me.
From the rising sun to the setting same,
I will praise Your name,
great is Your faithfulness to me.

God from age to age,
though the earth may pass away,
Your word remains the same.
Your history can prove,
there's nothing You can't do,
You're faithful and true. Pre Chorus, Chorus.

I put my faith in Jesus,
my anchor to the ground.
My hope and firm foundation,
He'll never let me down. Repeat. Chorus.

The Sacrament of Covenant (Infant) Baptism

As we read through the Word of God, it becomes clear that God's sovereign grace is embraced in the "covenant" framework of Scripture. By grace alone, God has covenanted with His people that He will have them to/for Himself from every nation, tribe, people, and language (Rev 7). It is a covenant generally that embraces family solidarity (see Acts 2:39; Acts 16:31; Gen 17:7). As noted elsewhere, "every person identified in the Bible as having a household present at his or her conversion also had the household baptized."

Because of God's covenant, all history marches forward to the time when God's covenant people will live in the New Jerusalem in a renewed world order enjoying fully their relationship with God: "they will be His people, and God Himself will be their God" (see Rev. 21:3).

Even today, Christ continues as "the Mediator of the new covenant" (Heb 8), the one Mediator between God and man (1 Tim 2). Salvation is covenant salvation: regeneration, justification, adoption, sanctification are covenant mercies. Baptism and the Lord's Supper, corresponding to/replacing the old covenant rites of circumcision and Passover, are covenant ordinances. God's law is covenant law, and keeping it is the truest expression of gratitude for covenant grace and loyalty to our covenant God. An understanding of this covenant of grace guides us through, and helps us appreciate, all the wonders of God's redeeming love.

Christians in our theological tradition believe that children of believers, infant children, are and should be included as members of the visible covenant community, the church. Why? Because we believe, based upon the Bible, that infant children of believers have the status of covenant children and therefore should be baptized, just as Jewish male infants previously had been circumcised. Again, why? Because, if infants are deemed members of the visible covenant community with their believing parents, it is fitting to give them the sign of covenant status and of their place in the covenant community.

Is there something magic about the water? No. Do baptized infants have no obligation to make a public profession of personal faith in Jesus Christ? Certainly, they do. When we celebrate the sacrament of covenant baptism, we publicly recognize a covenant child through the covenant sign of baptism as a child of at least one believing parent (1 Cor 7:14), thus as a member of the visible church. At the same time, we are careful also to affirm that neither baptism nor being the child of believing parents will suffice to make that child a true believer. At some point, each baptized infant/child must personally turn from their sins and express their own faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

The outward and visible sign in baptism is water. As water is poured down on the head of a child, we are reminded of the cleansing blood of the Lord Jesus Christ that delivers us from the penalty of sin (1 John 1:7) as well as the sanctifying virtue of the Holy Spirit delivering us from the power of sin (Rom 8:2).

SERMON QUESTIONS

1. James connects trials and temptation using the same Greek word. How have you experienced a trial that was meant to strengthen you becoming a moment of temptation instead? What shifted internally?
2. James says, “Do not be deceived” (v.16). In what ways are we most prone to self-deception during trials? What lies do we tend to believe about God, ourselves, or our circumstances when we fail?
3. James refuses to let us blame God (v.13) and instead locates the problem within us (v.14). Why is it so hard to admit that our failure comes from our own “over-desires”? Where are you most tempted to blame others, your past, or even God?
4. James describes desire as something that conceives and gives birth to sin, which then produces death (v.14–15). What does this imagery teach us about the seriousness and progression of unchecked desire? Where have you seen “the end implicit in the beginning” in your own life?
5. In verse 16 James calls his readers “beloved.” Why is that word so important in this context? What does it communicate about God’s posture toward us, even in failure? How do we know we are loved by God? Where did he most deeply manifest his love for us?
6. James reminds us that God is the “Father of lights” who does not change (v.17) and that He has “brought us forth by the word of truth” (v.18). How does God’s unchanging character and your new birth in Christ anchor you when you fail? What does it look like, practically, to stand again because the Father’s love and promises are steady?
7. In Titus 2, Paul says that the grace of God not only saves us but trains us to renounce ungodliness and live self-controlled lives. How does experiencing the Father’s grace in our failure not only cover our sin but reshape our desires, so that we begin to love Him more than the sin we once turned to?

SERMON POINTS

1. There are certain trials we will fail.
2. Why we fail certain trials.
3. How God meets us in our failure, that we might stand again.

Jackson Apologetics: Clear Answers for Complex Questions

Teachers: Jerome Douglas, Karen Ellis, Esther Abraham

Location: Room 109

Want to grow in defending the faith? Join us as we engage the beliefs shaping our city and everyday conversations. We will explore sexuality, Christian nationalism, Islam, Jehovah Witness, Hebrew Israelism, and deconstruction - drawing from Eric Mason's Urban Apologetics. Come grow in clarity and confidence as we learn to give Gospel answers with gentleness and respect (1 Peter 3:15).

The Song of Songs

Teacher: Miles Van Pelt

Location: Sanctuary

The Song of Songs is perhaps the most neglected and misunderstood book in the Christian Bible, but we need to hear its message more than ever in our current cultural moment. The Song upholds the beauty of the marriage covenant as instituted by God in Genesis 2, while helping us to navigate the hardships, temptations, and brokenness of the post-fall Genesis 3 world we now inhabit. In this class, we will consider the topic of marriage and marital intimacy from the larger context of the Bible through the lens of Solomon's most famous song, the Song of Songs.

Christian Growth: the Fruit of the Spirit

Teachers: Zack Owens, Bentley Crawford, Andy Sauerwein

Location: Fellowship Hall

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Galatians 5:22-23). In scripture, a healthy life with God is often described in biological terms – whether as physical growth or botanical growth (a living faith is not truly living if it doesn't exhibit the characteristics of life: movement, breathing, and growth.)

In this class, we will explore each of the Fruit of the Spirit as a window into a biblical understanding of how and why we grow as Christians, exploring not only personal sanctification but also Intimacy (giving and receiving love), Identity (Connecting to others even through conflict), Imperfection (Dealing with sin and failure in ourselves and others), and Impulse Control (Holy Spirit empowered ability to feel and think instead of react).
