“The Transformative Power of The Gospel of Grace”
Galatians 1:10-24

Welcome & Announcements

Pastor Elbert McGowan, Jr.

* Call to Worship

Ephesians 2:1-10

Rev. Zack Owens
Assistant Pastor of Congregational Care

And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience—among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the flesh and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved—and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

Prayer of Invocation and Confession of Sin

Rev. Zack Owens

Assurance of Pardon

Psalms 130:3-4

Rev. Zack Owens

If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand? But with you there is forgiveness, that you may be feared.

* Song of Preparation

“Bless That Wonderful Name”

Bless that wonderful name of Jesus.

Bless that wonderful name of Jesus.

Bless that wonderful name of Jesus—no other name I know.

Mighty is the name of Jesus.

Holy is the name of Jesus.

Glorious is the name of Jesus—no other name I know.

Worthy is the name of Jesus.

Wonderful is the name of Jesus.

Son of God is He, my Jesus—no other name I know.

Praise that wonderful name of Jesus.

Praise that wonderful name of Jesus.

Praise that wonderful name of Jesus—no other name I know.

* Song of Praise

“A Living Sacrifice”

I offer my body, I offer my mind, I offer my spirit as a living sacrifice.

In view of your mercy, I lay down my life, Jesus, receive me as a living sacrifice.

Make me holy, make me holy, make me holy as a living sacrifice.

I have a strong and perfect plea,
A great High Priest whose name is "Love,"
Who ever lives and pleads for me.
My name is graven on His hands,
My name is written on His heart;

The Sacrament of Covenant (Infant) Baptism

As we read through the Word of God, it becomes clear that God's sovereign grace is embraced in the "covenant" framework of Scripture. By grace alone, God has covenanted with His people that He will have them to/for Himself from every nation, tribe, people, and language (Rev 7). It is a covenant generally that embraces family solidarity (see Acts 2:39; Acts 16:31; Gen 17:7). As noted elsewhere, "every person identified in the Bible as having a household present at his or her conversion also had the household baptized." Because of God's covenant, all history marches forward to the time when God's covenant people will live in the New Jerusalem in a renewed world order enjoying fully their relationship with God: "they will be His people, and God Himself will be their God" (see Rev. 21:3).

Even today, Christ continues as "the Mediator of the new covenant" (Heb 8), the one Mediator between God and man (1 Tim 2). Salvation is covenant salvation: regeneration, justification, adoption, sanctification are covenant mercies. Baptism and the Lord's Supper, corresponding to/replacing the old covenant rites of circumcision and Passover, are covenant ordinances. God's law is covenant law, and keeping it is the truest expression of gratitude for covenant grace and loyalty to our covenant God. An understanding of this covenant of grace guides us through, and helps us appreciate, all the wonders of God's redeeming love.

Christians in our theological tradition believe that children of believers, infant children, are and should be included as members of the visible covenant community, the church. Why? Because we believe, based upon the Bible, that infant children of believers have the status of covenant children and therefore should be baptized, just as Jewish male infants previously had been circumcised. Again, why? Because, if infants are deemed members of the visible covenant community with their believing parents, it is fitting to give them the sign of covenant status and of their place in the covenant community.

Is there something magic about the water? No. Do baptized infants have no obligation to make a public profession of personal faith in Jesus Christ? Certainly, they do. When we celebrate the sacrament of covenant baptism, we publicly recognize a covenant child through the covenant sign of baptism as a child of at least one believing parent (1 Cor 7:14), thus as a member of the visible church. At the same time, we are careful also to affirm that neither baptism nor being the child of believing parents will suffice to make that child a true believer. At some point, each baptized infant/child must personally turn from their sins and express their own faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

The outward and visible sign in baptism is water. As water is poured down on the head of a child, we are reminded of the cleansing blood of the Lord Jesus Christ that delivers us from the penalty of sin (1 John 1:7) as well as the sanctifying virtue of the Holy Spirit delivering us from the power of sin (Rom 8:2).

Serve at Upside Down This Fall

We are excited to restart Upside Down on Aug 19. This is our midweek discipleship time for kids k4-5th grade. It's like VBS for our kids once a week! This fall we will be studying Joshua. If you'd like to join the RedeemerKids team as a leader, reach out to Jajuan McNeil-mrmcneil@redeemerjackson.com-we'd love to have you!

Volunteers Needed for Children's Church

We want to restart children's church on Sept 20 for our K4 and K5 members. In order to teach our children about covenant theology on first and third Sundays, we need 10 people to help to disciple some of our youngest members. Please contact Jajuan McNeil at mrmcneil@redeemerjackson.com by Sept 2 to let him know that you want to be apart of this leadership group.

Art + Soil Garden Swap, Aug 29, 9:00-11:00am

Join the Art + Soil Garden for our "Garden Swap" community event! We will share our seeds, tools, plants and other supplies. Bring what you can and take what you need! There will also be kids activities and information for new gardeners. To drop off donations beforehand, for more information, or to volunteer contact Kateri Gill at kateriar-is@gmail.com.

 CALLED TO CONNECT ***

Hope & Relationships via Hope Exchange Begins Aug 19, 6:00-7:30pm

Hope & Relationships is a communication class (powered by Hope Exchange) for people who: 1) are ready to make real progress and grow in the way they speak and listen; 2) want to share their honest thoughts, feelings, and opinions without causing unnecessary offense; 3) desire to understand their patterns in conflict and strive for real change; and 4) are open to working through challenges in community. If that sounds like you, get signed up through QR code and reserve your spot in the class!

RCA ArtShare, Aug 20, 6:00-8:00pm

Join us for our art "open mic night." All mediums welcome! Play a song, share a poem, show a painting or drawing, or read a short story. Even if it's in a rough draft form, come share what you've been working on. This is a friendly and relaxed environment designed to encourage one another in creative artmaking. We'll meet at Lydia Martin's home, contact Peter Davis at peterdart@live.com for the address and more details. All ages welcome!

RYA Pool Party & BBQ, Aug 27, 6:30-8:00pm

This Fall with Redeemer Young Adults, we're kicking things off with a pool party and FREE BBQ! We'll be catering food from Boondocks, and drinks will be provided as well. Invite a friend and come enjoy good food and fellowship with us! Joyce Hamme is hosting at her home, address will be posted in the RYA GroupMe, join through the QR code.

Redeemer Music Collective, Aug 30, 4:30-6:00pm

Join us in the sanctuary for the first Redeemer Music Collective, a relaxed gathering for musicians and vocalists of all ages and experience levels to connect, learn, and make music together. Register through the QR code to receive the songs, chord charts, and event details. Contact Candace Robins at crobins@redeemerjackson.com for more information.

 NEWS TO NOTE *****

Jonathan Lancaster Returns to the Diaconate

Previously, Jonathan stepped down from the diaconate as he and Frances anticipated transitioning to First Presbyterian Church alongside his role as Head of School at First Pres Day School. We're delighted to share that Jonathan, Frances, and their kids will be remaining at Redeemer even as Jonathan continues as the Head of School at FPDS, and the session has voted to reinstate Jonathan to the diaconate.

Barry McCay Returns from Sabbatical

Ruling Elder Barry McCay has returned from his year long Sabbatical (his first in 14 years of service!). We are so thankful to have Barry's steady faithfulness, theological insight, servant's heart, and love for the church.

Redeemer Officer Update, John Hooker

At the Aug 10 meeting, with sadness, the Session accepted the resignation of John Hooker from the Diaconate. For the past 14 years, John has served tirelessly with Redeemer Engaging Disabilities, Transportation Ministry, Mercy Ministry, Wednesday nights, and in a wide array of administrative details. His deep kindness, ministry of presence, and extensive service as an officer will be missed. Thank you, John!

Officer Training Open to The Congregation, Begins Aug 19, 7:00pm

This year we are pleased to open Officer Training not only to the men nominated for office but also to the congregation at large. We believe that this educational opportunity can benefit everyone in the church—especially those in leadership—as we go through the Mission & Vision of Redeemer, the big picture of the Bible, Covenant Theology, the Westminster Standards, and more. The class will run for 10 Wednesday nights, Aug 19-Oct 28 (skipping Oct 7 & Oct 14), 6:00-7:30pm. Space is limited. To hold your spot, email Brian Gault at bgault@redeemerjackson.com

Fall Sunday School Adult Classes Block 1

9:45-10:35am

Aug 9—Sept 27

Redemption Accomplished, WCF 8-15

Location: Fellowship Hall

Teacher: Brian Gault

This fall, our Sunday School class will explore Chapters 8–15 of the Westminster Confession of Faith, tracing the heart of the gospel and the saving work of Christ. Over seven weeks we will consider how God rescues sinners through the person and work of Jesus and applies that redemption to His people by the Holy Spirit.

Topics include Christ the Mediator, human will and sin, effectual calling, justification, adoption, sanctification, saving faith, and repentance. Together these chapters present a beautiful picture of God's grace—from Christ accomplishing salvation to the Spirit bringing that salvation to life in believers. Whether you are new to the Confession or familiar with it already, this class will help deepen your understanding of the gospel and strengthen your confidence in the saving grace of Christ.

The Righteousness of God: Romans 1-5

Location: Room 109

Teachers: Josh Anderson, Joshua Coleman, Markese Lee,
Jonny Parker, Jermaine Van Buren

In this Sunday School class, we aim to use Romans 1-5 to paint a clear picture of the unrighteousness of man, the righteousness of God, and the way in which this righteousness is imputed to those who believe in Christ. In these five chapters, Paul gives arguably the clearest exposition in the Bible of how we sinners are made righteous by the death and resurrection of Christ. We hope that, after this class, all who attend will leave with a clearer understanding of the righteousness we have in Christ, the divine indicative that serves as a foundation for all divine imperatives.

Redeeming the Time: Parenting as Spiritual Formation

Location: Sanctuary

Teachers: Zack & Kristen Owens, Marray & TK Harris

In this class, we hope to focus less on behavior and discipline and more on the formation of our children - heart, mind, soul, and strength. Connecting the dots between Ephesians 5:15-16 and 6:1-4, we will explore how children spend their time and how parents spend time with their children (technology, play, sports, reading, spiritual discipleship at home and at church).

Fall Children & Youth Sunday School

9:45-10:35am

Aug 9—Nov 29

Youth (6th-12th): Confronting Christianity: 12 Hard Questions for the World's Largest Religion

High School Teachers: Chael Williams, Stephanie Greer, Jerome Douglas, Katie Drake, Rob Vickery, Mary Kathryn Evans, Cadden Christie

Middle School Teachers: Chael Williams, Stephanie Greer, Jerome Douglas, Katie Drake, Lane Morgan, Goodness Adegbola, Oliver Hammond, Jake Garner

Location: Youth Room

This fall Redeemer Youth Sunday School will be working through Confronting Christianity: 12 Hard Questions for the World's Largest Religion by Rebecca McLaughlin. From the back of the book:

"Christianity is the most widespread global belief system, and promises to remain so well into the future. But for many educated westerners, biblical Christianity is a dangerous idea—challenging some of their deepest beliefs. Channeling state-of-the-art research, personal stories, and careful biblical study, Confronting Christianity explores 12 questions that keep many of us from considering faith in Christ. Look more closely, McLaughlin argues, and the reality of suffering, the complexity of sexuality, the desire for diversity, the success of science, and other seeming roadblocks to faith become signposts. Jesus becomes not a relic from the ancient world, but our modern world's best hope."

Children's (K4-5th): Exodus

K4- Room 209/211 - Teachers: Amanda McGuffey, Rachel Harbarger

K5- Room 208 - Teachers: Beth Clarke, Sarah Love Crawford, Rebekah Kettleman

1st Grade-Room 210 - Teachers: Claire Graves, Krisan Parish

2nd Grade-Room 207 - Teachers: Gene Everitt, KK Harrington, Rebecca Walker

3rd Grade - Room 205/206 - Teachers: Andrea Burkes, Page Callen, Christa Williams

4th Grade - Room 204 - Teachers: Latanya Frances, Alleen McClain, Sonya White

5th Grade - Teachers: Haley Arndt, Tyler Espinoza

This Fall, RedeemerKids will start to study the book of Exodus during the Sunday School hour. We will be using OneStory's curriculum to study God's word chapter by chapter.

Nursery (2's & 3's): God's Faithfulness to His Promises

Teachers: Olivia Akins, Chad Akins, Amy Boyett, Alexis Doty, Akida Mosby

Location: Nursery Wing

This fall, our Nursery Sunday School will focus on teaching our young children the biblical foundation of God's creation and the early family of faith by covering key stories from the Book of Genesis, highlighting the life of Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham and Sarah, Isaac, Rebekah, Esau, Jacob, and Joseph and how they fit into God's plan of salvation.
